PRESS RELEASE

This announcement is not an offer of securities in the United States or any other jurisdiction. Securities may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an exemption from registration under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Publicis does not intend to register any portion of the planned exchange offer or any offer of New Bonds in the United States or to conduct a public offering of securities in the United States, or any other country. This announcement is an advertisement and not a prospectus for the purposes of EU Directive 2003/71/EC.

Publicis Groupe Announces Exchange Offer for its Eurobond 2012

Paris, December 2, 2009

Publicis Groupe S.A. (the "Company") today announced that it has invited holders to exchange any or all of their €750,000,000 4.125% Bonds due 2012 (the "Existing Bonds") for Euro-denominated Fixed Rate Bonds due 2015 to be issued (the "New Bonds") in an exchange offer (the "Exchange Offer").

The purpose of the Exchange Offer is to lengthen the maturity of the Company's financial resources.

The Exchange Offer was launched on December 2, 2009. The Company will have the right to close the Exchange Offer on 9 December 2009 (the "Early Expiration Deadline"). If the Company decides, in its sole discretion, not to exercise this option, the Company may choose to limit the amount of Existing Bonds that will be accepted after the Early Expiration Deadline, and the Exchange Offer will expire on 15 December 2009, unless extended or earlier terminated.

The Exchange Offer is subject to a number of conditions and may be amended, withdrawn or terminated by the Company at any time.

The Exchange Offer is subject to legal restrictions in a number of jurisdictions. In particular, invitations to exchange Existing Bonds will not be accepted from investors in the United States or U.S. Persons.

This Announcement is for information purposes only and is not an invitation to exchange Existing Bonds for New Bonds.
