Carrefour acquires 53 Billa supermarkets in Italy

Carrefour announces today the acquisition of 53 supermarkets under the Billa banner from the Rewe Group. Located in three regions of northern Italy, Lombardy, Liguria and the Aosta Valley, and with a combined sales area of 58,000 m², the stores generated net sales of around 300 million euros in 2013.

This acquisition, consistent with Carrefour's multiformat strategy, will allow Carrefour to strengthen its presence in northern Italy.

The completion of the transaction is subject to the approval of the relevant antitrust authorities and consultations with Billa's employee representative bodies.
