

L'ORÉAL

The passing of Mrs Liliane Bettencourt

Clichy, 21 September 2017

Message from Jean-Paul Agon, Chairman and CEO of L'Oréal Group

I have just learned with great sadness the passing of Mrs Liliane Bettencourt, daughter of Eugène Schueller, founder of the L'Oréal Group.

All of L'Oréal's employees join me in expressing our most sincere condolences and affectionate thoughts in these sad moments to Mrs. Françoise Bettencourt Meyers, Mr. Jean-Pierre Meyers, and their two sons Jean-Victor and Nicolas.

We all had a great admiration for Liliane Bettencourt who always looked after L'Oréal, the company and its employees, and was very attached to its success and development.

She has personally contributed greatly to its success for many years. Mrs Liliane Bettencourt was a great lady of beauty who has left us and whom we will never forget.

Jean-Paul Agon

Communiqué Françoise Bettencourt Meyers, le 21 septembre 2017

Liliane Bettencourt est décédée cette nuit à son domicile.

Elle aurait eu 95 ans le 21 octobre.

Ma mère est partie paisiblement.

Mon mari Jean-Pierre Meyers, nos enfants Jean-Victor et Nicolas partageons ensemble une infinie tristesse.

Dans ce douloureux moment pour nous, je tiens à rappeler, au nom de notre famille, notre entier attachement et notre fidélité à l'Oréal et à renouveler toute ma confiance à son président Jean-Paul Agon, comme à ses équipes dans le monde entier.

Mes parents n'ont pas seulement su accompagner le développement de l'Oréal. Ils ont également créé une Fondation caritative que je suis heureuse de présider aujourd'hui.

Press release from Françoise Bettencourt Meyers

September, 21st 2017

Liliane Bettencourt died last night at her home.

She would have turned 95 years old on October 21st.

My mother left peacefully.

My husband Jean-Pierre Meyers and our children Jean-Victor and Nicolas share an infinite sadness.

In this painful moment for us, I would like to reiterate, on behalf of our family, our entire commitment and loyalty to L'Oréal and to renew my confidence in its President Jean-Paul Agon and his teams worldwide.

My parents have not only been able to help the development of L'Oréal. They have also founded a caritative Foundation that I am glad of chairing today.
